CLASS HISTORY

The history of our class began with the building of Glenn. Here was formed a united class as new friends became old friends. At first we were just a little frightened when we realized what a short time we had in which to accomplish so many things that make a class. Now that it has past we know there was never need for fear.

What a rough time we had for the first five or six months! When school started, the second story stood as if on stilts in the air. Down stairs there were no walls, only steel beams. Wobbly, temporary steps enabled us to get to second story class rooms, which were more shell than room. Oh no, going to school had never been like this! We walked in red mud, almost ruined our clothing and quite generally complained. As cold weather set in, oil stoves with pipes dangling out the windows were placed in these cold doorless rooms—and we grumblingly placed ourselves around them. Ah! but there was always sweet with the bitter. This same cold frequently sent us home hours early, and no one complained when this happened. As the leaves flamed into their glory and as the wind sent them swirling in joyous dances or to deep despair, so were we juniors. Our magazine sales when good sent us into spells of glee, but when poor, left us discouraged and sad. We worked hard and were about to see a silver lining to our financial situation by the time our sales campaign ended.

The biggest event of our junior year came in the form of our Junior-Senior Banquet. After many hours of hard work, the big night finally came and we were very thrilled—our first formal. It was fun from the beginning to end. The meal was interspersed with entertainment, then followed a dance. It was weary feet but happy hearts that took us home that Friday night in April.

Commencement exercises this year meant more to us because we had a part in it. With it came the big thrill of any junior, marching before and after the seniors; realizing that next year we would be the seniors.

• • • • •

1951—The day had arrived at last and we were in the Senior Class but even now we found there was still much work to do. We sweated and toiled at English IV and chemistry, bookkeeping, and shorthand, and all our other subjects. We patiently labored and waited, however, not idlely for May, our Graduation night.

Perhaps the beginning of our unforgettable events was the November football homecoming celebration. The seniors were allowed to lead and were given the honors in connection with this event.

November brought more excitement to us when we chose Judy Edmonson and Freddy Speaks as our mascots. This was not easy because we had so many cute and attractive candidates. On the same day we selected class superlatives and voted to dedicate our annual to Mrs. Reavis.

The fall before we sold magazines; now we sold Christmas cards. Instead of a banquet to finance, it was an annual. This sale climaxed with a Christms party by Mrs. Reavis' room, the losers, for Miss Baker's room.

On the 15th of December we went to the school's Christmas dance. Everyone had a wonderful time amid the soft glow of candles, twinkling lights of huge Christmas tree, and merry voices blended with dance music.

With mid-term exams in January came headaches. Many seniors who seldom ever used their books were seen with books.

Unexpected and unwanted vacations came to us this spring, when a flu epidemic made it necessary for schools to close.

We asked for a few privileges during the last half of the year and they were granted. They were: Eating first at lunch time, senior day off, and a kids day.

The Adorable Imp, our class play was given in May by a group of nervous seniors who had a bad case of stage fright, but who did such a good job of acting that our play will be long remembered.

In May we had the great privilege of going to our second formal banquet. We shall always be grateful to the juniors of '52 for the wonderful time they gave us.

At last came Graduation week and we had our last fling. Our class day exercises reviewed our past and prophesied for future. We felt very solemn on the Sunday of our Baccalaureate Sermon. On Graduation night, as we donned our robes and caps, we truly realized that the time had come to say goodbye to high school and to meet the future. Our emotions were a mixture of pride and humility, joy and sorrow, but we were thrilled as we received our diplomas and marched out. For each of us a curtain had closed and a new one opened.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the undersigned, known officially as the class of 1952, Glenn High School, County of Forsyth, State of North Carolina, being sound in body, we believe, having completed all unit credits, required by law, do hereby declare those after mentioned to be our legal and rightful heirs. We do hereby relinquish and make the following dispensations of our possessions.

Article I—To the Faculty

Item 1. To Mr. Heffner, our Principal, we leave a hearty thanks for making our Senior year a happy one, for his unselfish interest in each one of us, and for his understanding of our problems.

Item 2. To our Advisors, Miss Baker and Mrs. Reavis, we leave our deep appreciation for their guidance and interest in our class activities.

Item 3. To Miss Mottesheard, our Annual Sponsor, we leave best wishes for happy and successful years to come.

Item 4. To our subject teachers, we leave gratitude and sincere wishes that classes to follow will be more industrious and have less problems.

Article II—To the Underclassmen

Item 1. To the Juniors, we will the privilege of being the Senior class with the understanding that they must not abuse it.

Item 2. To the Sophomores, we leave our school spirit and a list of our mistakes so they can profit from their elders.

Item 3. To the Freshmen, we bequeath our hope that it will not be long before they will be Seniors.

Article III—To Individuals

Item 1. I, Jimmy Bodenhamer, will my little red tractor and trailer to the Senior Class so they can always have a means of transportation.

Item 2. I, Pete Meredith, will the dark room and all its equipment to Gerald Talley so he will have a hobby to enjoy.

Item 3. I, Charles Atkins, leave my cute and winning ways with the women to Phillip Matthews.

Item 4. I, Doris Joyce, will my position as Secretary of the Senior Class to Betty Angel.

Item 5. We, Carolyn Leonard and Willie Mae Stewart, will to Magdalene Idol and Wanell Williard our voices to either cultivate or plow under.

Item 6. I, Leroy Beaver, will my seat at the head of the Key Club to Bill Linville.

Item 7. I, Ethel Hayes, leave my chatter about nothing in particular to Ellen Sheets.

Item 8. I, David Holt, will my dancing technique to Jimmy Holland. Keep in step Jim!

Item 9. I, Donald Robertson, will my snappy answers in class to Gray Kanoy.

Item 10. We, Norma Sue Hine and Thelma Pendry will our pleasant smiles to Barbara Evans and Shirley Lauten.

Item 11. I, Charles Rhoades, bequeath my "gift of gab" to Joe Reavis with the hope he can attain new heights in "bull shooting."

Item 12. I, Emily Lankford, will my artistic ability to Dorothy Moore.

Item 13. I, David Montgomery, will my height to Jimmy Harris, so he can get more rebounds in basketball.

Item 14. We, Lois Hastings and Betty Lou Whitt, will our witty ways to Treva Bodenhamer in order that the Senior Class can always be merry and gay.

Item 15. I, Aaron Rhue, bequeath my alarm clock along with my fear of being late each morning to Richard Deal, hoping he will always be excused.

Item 16. I, Joan Davis Long, bequeath the task of writing a letter each night to Nora Idol and Barbara Sweatman.

Item 17. I, Roger Kimball, will my calculating mind to Charlotte Money so she can out think the faculty in securing Senior privileges.

Item 18. We, Phyllis Bauguss and Ellen Moore, will to Brona Smith and Betty Snyder the privilege of having a steady boy friend their Senior year.

Item 19. I, Joyce Lawson, will to Connie Evans, my ability to state my mind and enjoy woman's freedom of speech.

Item 20. I, Larry Motsinger, leave my baseball ability and high batting averages to Jimmie Welborn with the belief that Jimmie will become a professional ball player.

Item 21. We, Peggy Idol and Betty Jean Smith, leave our giggle-box to Pthrane Skeene and Julia Thomason provided they do not use it at the wrong time.

Item 22. I, Hilda Ledford Goins, will my books to Vera Swaim, hoping she will use them more than I did.

Item 23. I, Junior Richardson, bequeath the honor of being Senior Class President to Geraldine Britt.

Item 24. I, Andrew Vastano, bequeath several articles—my Jr. "G" Man's badge, my collection of strings, nails, and broken trinkets, and my southern drawl to anyone who wants it.

Item 25. I, Harriet Gross, will my typewriter to Mary Alice Williard and Betty Lou Smith so they can become speed demons next year.

Item 26. I, Ray Frank Sink, leave my place on the football team to Kenny Matthews.

Item 27. We, Helen Motsinger and Ruth Smith, leave our French notebooks to Barbara Bradshaw and Joan Rominger.

Item 28. I, Bill Payne, bequeath fifteen pounds of my many pounds to James Comer, so he may be in line for making the football team next year.

Item 29. I, Harvey Hines, will to Bobbie Dorsett my corny jokes hoping she can keep some pep in the Senior Class.

Item 30. We, Kenneth Lineberry and Billy Walker, will our ability to sleep in class to Wesley Parnell hoping he won't be disturbed as much as we were.

Item 31. I, Bratania Smith, will to Billie Ann Welborn my friendly disposition.

Item 32. We, Betty Jean Bates and Margaret Fennel, will the privilege of receiving a diamond our Senior year to Kay Smith and Janice Woosley.

Item 33. I, Kenneth Payne, bequeath my football suit to Jay Branson, so he will not have to share one with someone else next year.

Item 34. We, Nancy Leinbach and Bobbie Trivette leave the Bookstore and all its contents to Juanita Mason and Arlene Shields

Item 35. We, Merlyn Sink and Becky Willard, leave our cheerleading positions to Nancy Williams and Janet Smith. Learn lots of new yells, girls!

Item 36. I, Meris Teague, leave my skill as a ballet dancer to Betty Sue Snowdy.

Item 37. I, Ralph Willis, will to Norman Head my position as Sports Editor of The Howler.

Item 38. I, Peggy Ann Smith, leave my long curls to Shirley Yokely.

Item 39. We, Grady Cox and Richard Williard, will our school buses to Robert Tucker and Bobby Smith, hoping they will enjoy driving them as much as we did.

Item 40. We, Betty Branch and Carolyn Hiatt, leave our jokes to Jeanette Hunter and Shirley Long.

Item 41. I, Peggy Sowers, leave my quiet ways to Shirley Mabe and Jean Holder.

In testimony whereof, we have here unto set our hands and affixed our seal, this 3rd day of June, 1952.

Signed

Dear Barbara,

I certainly have enjoyed going to school with you this passed year. When I first came to Glenn, I never thought I would meet such fine people, and "fat" people. Please write me and let me know if Barbara York's boyfried "kisses" her. You had better get "slim" for me this summer so you boyfriend Bo he can pat his arms around you! Please stay as sweet as you are now for me, and remember me until next year!

Love ya with all my heart!!!!!!
